10th Annual Cuyahoga County Conference on Social Welfare
Friday March 13, 8:00am-4:30pm
Case Western Reserve University Tinkham Veale University Center Center
11038 Bellflower Road
Cleveland, OH 44106
Registration inc. lunch & parking: $50 (General); $30 (Presenter); $20 (Student/Retired)
Register via link at: www.naswoh.org/cccosw
CEUs: 5.5 ($10)

CCCOSW 2020 Program Overview
This overview can be found here.

9:00: Greetings

9:15-10:00am Where do we go from here? From 400 Years of Inequity to A Greater Cleveland Standing up for Equity (.75 CEUs)

Introductions: William Tarter, Jr., Center for Community Solutions; CCCOSW Sponsor Representative

Dr. Arthur James, MD, Consultant, First Year Cleveland: Overview of 400 Years of Inequity Conference & Update on Declaring Structural Racism a Public Health Crisis

Dale Anglin, MPP (Invited), Program Director, Youth and Social Services at the Cleveland Foundation; Overview of Cleveland Rising TRUTH group on Trust, Racial Unity, Transformation and Healing

Mittie Davis Jones, Ph.D. Interim Director, Diversity Institute, Office of Inclusion and Multicultural Engagement, Cleveland State University: Cleveland State University Project 400.

Katrice Cain, M.A., Racial Disparities Program Manager, First Year Cleveland: Role that social workers, counselors and human service workers can play in moving forward; encouragement to have great table discussions

Michael Dover, Ph.D. (Cleveland State University School of Social Work): Confronting Human Injustice and Structural Racism: Table discussions on small and big ideas for addressing wrongfully unmet human needs at the micro, mezzo and macro levels

10:00-10:45 Table Discussions and Exercises (.75 CEUs)

(With the support of a table partner and a table facilitator, we each complete a presenting problem worksheet and a human needs/human rights checklist that identified barriers faced and concludes with small and big ideas for change at the micro, mezzo and macro levels.)

11:00am-12:00pm: Keynote Address: Valerie Alloy, Ph.D., Lead, Early Childhood Mental Health Initiatives, Bureau of Children and Families, Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (1 CEU)

12:00-12:30 pm Lunch (And Remembering Our Own; Word Bubbles from AM Tables)
12:30-1:00 ( NASW Region 3 Awards)

1:00-1:15: Go to PM Workshops (For full descriptions, go here)

1:15-2:45 PM Workshops 90 Minute Workshops (1.5 CEUs)
Note: Workshop scheduling subject to minor changes.

1. Small & Big Ideas for Dismantling Structural Racism & Human Injustice
2. Connect Substance Abuse Treatment with Treatment that Matches Needs
3. Evidence Based Treatment Targets Clinical Burnout and Increases Effectiveness
4 Civic Engagement & Community Empowerment: Doing is Knowing & Knowing is Power
5 Understanding Scope of Self-Care in Trauma Informed Care
6 Role of Mental Health System in Crisis Intervention Teams
7 Intersectionality: Multiple Factors, Multiple Recoveries (Part 1)
8 Voting is Social Work: Countering Misinformation with Voter Education
15 Title: How to Impact the Ohio State Budget on Issues of Poor and Vulnerable Residents

2:45-3:00pm: Go to Next Set of Workshops (For full descriptions, go here)

3:00-4:30 PM 90 Minute Workshops (1.5 CEUs)

9 Toxic: A Black Woman's Story
11 Interdisciplinary Cuyahoga County Crisis Team Program: Where are we in 2020?
12 Mindfulness-Based Self Care for Social Workers
13 Community Response to the Opioid Epidemic
14 Fired up & Ready to Go: Effective Advocacy
16 Intersectionality: Multiple Factors, Multiple Recoveries (Part 2)
17 Emotionally Intelligence Leadership and Social Justice Work
18 Raising Global Awareness: Stories of refugees thriving in Cleveland